The Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce and California Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce is Set to Celebrate and Recognize Asian Pacific Islander Heritage at the Sacramento International Airport

SACRAMENTO, CA – The Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce (SACC) and California Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce (CalAsian) is proud to announce the Grand Reveal of our lounge area at the Sacramento International Airport. This dedicated lounge area continues to celebrate and highlight the impact the Asian Pacific Islander (API) businesses and professionals have in the Greater Sacramento Region. The Grand Reveal of the lounge will take place on April 13, 2017 at 12:00PM in Terminal B of the Sacramento International Airport.

The 600-square-foot display lounge is located on the 3rd Floor of Terminal B and features interactive digital monitors highlighting regional leaders who have greatly impacted the API region, a timeline noting significant milestones for the Chamber, an interactive Membership Directory, an industry of influence highlighting key Sacramento businesses, and a showcase of Sacramento's diversity with images created by local artist, DeeKay.

"We are very fortunate our partnership with the Sacramento International Airport allows for such opportunities to help promote the success and growth of the API community," says Pat Fong Kushida, President and CEO of the Sacramento Asian Chamber and CalAsian Chamber. "Changing demographics here continue to tell our story and our chamber is helping to usher in a new era of economic prosperity for our diverse membership. We want travelers from all over the world to realize how accomplished and impactful our community is."

The lounge area is supported by SACC and CalAsian Chamber's strategic partnerships including AT&T, Bank of America, KeenanDirect, Kronick Moskowitz Tiedemann & Girard, Paul Blanco's Good Car Company, Sacramento International Airport, Sacramento Regional Transit, SMUD, UC Davis, Western Contract, and Western Health Advantage.

The California Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce (CAPCC) and the Sacramento Asian Pacific Chamber of Commerce (SACC) collectively represent the interests of over 600,000 API-owned businesses in California. Each organization advocates for policies and legislation that will help the regional and statewide API-owned business community reach new markets.
