

Jayda Preyer is an Oakland native who transferred from Peralta Community College to Sacramento State University. She graduated Cum Laude in May of 2021 with B.S. in Criminal Justice with a minor in Sociology and Dance. She currently works as an Executive Assistant for Black Youth Leadership Project, the Network Lead for Black Girl Support Network, and a performer with AMPED Studios. Her passions are to empower people and spread healing through the art of dance. Jayda aspires to continuously learn, grow, and push herself beyond her limited beliefs while inspiring others to do the same.

ReplyLike